

Snack: Grilled Cheese Sandwiches, Pickles, and Chocolate Milk with Straws

In the story, Chef Silly Tillie makes the children Grilled Cheese Sandwiches. She gives them pickles and chocolate milk. Of course our little ones were inspired to blow bubbles in their milk, just like the children in the story. So we made sure to give them extra tall cups with VERY little chocolate milk in the bottom. They did an excellent job blowing bubbles until they reached the top, sipping some, and blowing again. Believe it or not, we had ZERO chocolate milk spills!
