It's 8 p.m. Do You Know Where Your Monster Is?

From the creators of the award-winning I Need My Monster

NEW YORK: When Ethan checks under the bed for his monster, he finds this note instead:

“So long, kid. Gotta go. Someone needs me more than you do. – Gabe”

What will Ethan do? How is he supposed to get to sleep if his monster is gone?

Ethan knows that the “someone” must be his little sister, Emma, who keeps climbing out of bed to play. She obviously needs a monster to help her get to sleep – but not HIS monster!

Ethan tries to help Emma find her own monster, but none are a perfect match. Agatha’s runny noses merely induce giggles, Cynthia’s rattling tail prompts Emma to dance, and Vladimir’s tentacles become jump ropes. Only Gabe manages to scare Emma into bed. Will Ethan lose his monster forever?

In the spooky-silly tradition of I Need My Monster, here is another irresistible monster-under-the-bed story for all monster-loving kids. The perfect balance of giggles and shivers will keep you under your covers, and you’ll soon be sleeping soundly.

PRAISE FOR I NEED MY MONSTER
